Sankofa: A Global Reunion Day

Sankofa is an Akan word that means, "Reaching back to one's origins to understand the purpose of one's existence." Sankofa Day will lay the foundation for healing both socially and spiritually the wounds of the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade. Lessons learned from this project can be applied to other traumatic events.

Bishop Gideon Adjei is a spiritual leader and teacher in Houston. Through outreach, personal interaction and Adjei Ministries, he has promoted cross-cultural values. His vision is to educate audiences about African culture and traditions.

The Sankofa event supports the values of community service, spiritual health and social equality.

The City of Houston salutes the organizers and participants of this important event, and extends best wishes for continued success.

Therefore, I, Bill White, Mayor of the City of Houston, hereby proclaim October 18, 2008, as

Sankofa: A Global Reunion Day

in Houston, Texas.

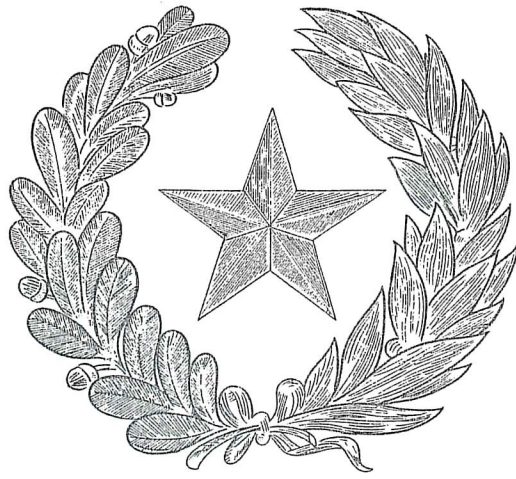

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and have caused the Official Seal of the City of Houston to be affixed this 16th day of October, 2008, A.D.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, An event promoting racial equality and forgiveness, Sankofa: A Global Reunion, is being held in Houston on March 7, 2009; and

WHEREAS, Derived from an Akan word that means "reaching back to one's origins to understand the purpose of one's existence," Sankofa is intended to lay the foundation for healing, both socially and spiritually, the wounds of the transatlantic slave trade; organized by the Most Reverend Archbishop Gideon Adjei, it is the second event of its kind to be held this year in Texas, and Archbishop Adjei will soon tour additional states to continue sharing this positive message; and

WHEREAS, Featuring speakers from the academic community, political and spiritual leaders, and entertainers, Sankofa educates audiences about African heritage and traditions and also promotes cross-cultural values; at the event, organizers are also announcing their plans to build a genealogy center in West Africa; the center will be named for James Byrd, Jr., the victim of the brutal hate crime in Jasper in 1998, and it will serve as a link between individuals of African descent and their ancestral tribes and families in West Africa; in addition, attendees will learn about the ongoing efforts to establish African American studies programs in colleges and universities across the country; and

WHEREAS, Sankofa encourages its audiences to learn from the past and approach the future with renewed optimism, and in so doing, it fosters an atmosphere of compassion and understanding that is beneficial to the Bayou City and beyond; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That Sankofa: A Global Reunion be commemorated and that Archbishop Adjei, along with all those in attendance, be extended sincere best wishes for a memorable and educational event.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Community members are gathering at Texas A&M University-Kingsville on February 16, 2010, for an event known as Sankofa: A Global Reunion; and

WHEREAS, The word sankofa, in the Akan language of Ghana, suggests the idea of learning from the past to build a better future; Sankofa: A Global Reunion is designed to address wounds opened by the transatlantic slave trade, a commerce that over the course of several centuries delivered approximately half a million people from Africa into bondage in North America; and

WHEREAS, Organized by Dr. Gideon Adjei, with the assistance of his wife, Denise Adjei, Sankofa seeks to use "repentance, forgiveness, truth and love" to heal interracial divisions, while also offering a stimulating program of cultural entertainment to promote interracial and interethnic understanding; and

WHEREAS, The event Sankofa: A Global Reunion is sponsored by the nonprofit of the same name, which is led by Dr. Adjei as executive director; under Dr. Adjei's direction, the broad objectives of this organization are to highlight the contributions to society by people of African descent, foster healthy habits and behaviors in young people, and promote an appreciation for diversity and a spirit of harmony among humankind; and

WHEREAS, The concept of Sankofa offers a path to a hopeful and more just future, and the work of building that future calls to all Texans of goodwill; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That Dr. and Mrs. Adjei be commended on the staging of this notable event and that all those in attendance be extended sincere best wishes for a memorable evening.

STATE OF TEXAS
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

Greetings:

As Governor of Texas, it is my pleasure to welcome everyone to SANKOFA: A Global Reunion, hosted by Adjei Ministries and Evangelistic Network.

These events highlight the importance of building bridges across cultural and religious divides, with a goal of mutual understanding. All over the world, when we form relationships based on tolerance and respect, there exist opportunities to make lasting friendships, enrich our minds and spirits, improve our lives and make the world a better place for the future.

First Lady Anita Perry and I send best wishes for a wonderful event.

Sincerely,

Rick Perry

Dear Archbishop Adjei,

Thank you for your letter and other information about your plans for a large conference called, "SANKOFA: A Global Reunion" Event.

I appreciate your thinking of me but I have not participated in, nor attended, any conferences for several years. As a matter of fact, my days of extensive travel are over.

During the past several years, I have faced several serious health challenges and have had to curtail my frequent travels. While I am doing well, at 90 years plus, I still need to conserve my energy.

I am praying for your conference. May God bless your endeavors for a mighty outpouring of God's Holy Spirit "in these latter days" ...and may it occur at the SANKOFA GLOBAL REUNION!

With my blessings,

Oral Roberts

WHEREAS, THE CROSS-CULTURAL EVENT "SANKOFA: A GLOBAL REUNION" WILL BE HELD OCTOBER 2, 2010, AT THE ARNESON THEATER ON THE SAN ANTONIO RIVERWALK; AND

WHEREAS, SANKOFA IS A NON-PROFIT, INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION THAT SPECIALIZES IN CROSS-CULTURAL EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS AND CELEBRATES THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF DIFFERENT ETHNICITIES TO SOCIETY; AND

WHEREAS, THE EVENT WILL FEATURE PRESENTATIONS FROM MOTIVATION SPEAKERS, HISTORIANS, POETS, MUSICAL ARTISTS, ENTERTAINERS, CULTURAL DANCERS AND NUTRITIONISTS; AND

WHEREAS, THE GOAL OF THE OCCASION IS TO FOSTER A SPIRIT OF HARMONY, EMPHASIZE THE IMPORTANCE OF DIVERSITY; AND BUILD A GLOBAL COMMUNITY - ONE NEIGHBORHOOD AT A TIME.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JULIÁN CASTRO, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF SAN ANTONIO, IN RECOGNITION THEREOF, DO HEREBY OFFER BEST WISHES TO SANKOFA FOR A MEMORABLE EVENT. I FURTHER EXTEND THE HOSPITALITY OF THE ALAMO CITY TO ALL VISITING ATTENDEES.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I HAVE HEREUNTO SET MY HAND AND CAUSED THE SEAL OF THE CITY OF SAN ANTONIO TO BE AFFIXED THIS 2ND DAY OF OCTOBER 2010.
